Free Initial Visit and Report

Accentuate is confident that we offer excellent and unique consultancy services which benefit client organisations. In order to demonstrate this to potential clients, we offer a free initial visit and report service. This involves one consultant visiting the client for half a day. In this half a day, there will be opportunity for each side to ask questions. The Accentuate consultant will carry out a short analysis of the position, needs and goals of the client. On return to the UK, a report will be produced and sent to the client within 7 days. This will give results of the initial analysis and make proposals for the possible next steps for the company – and how Accentuate could help. The only cost to the company is travel and accommodation for the consultant.
